FOR

Regulating the Coasting Trade of the Colony.

WHEREAS by an Imperial Act passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Coasting Trade and Merchant Shipping in British Possessions," it is enacted that, subject to certain conditions in the said Act contained, the Legislature of a British possession may, by any Act or Ordinance, from time to time regulate the coasting trade of the same: And whereas it is desirable to make provision for regulating the coasting trade of this Colony: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. All trade by sea from any one part, port, or place in this Colony to any other part thereof shall be deemed to be a coasting trade, and all ships while employed therein shall be deemed to be coasting ships.

II. Goods or passengers may be carried coastwise from one part of this Colony to another in foreign as well as British ships.

III. No goods shall be carried in any coasting ship, except such as shall be laden to be so carried at some port or place in this Colony, and no duty-paid goods shall be laden on board any ship to be carried coastwise until all goods brought in such ship from parts beyond the seas, or from beyond the limits of this Colony, shall have been unladen.

IV. If any goods shall be unshipped from any ship arriving coastwise or be shipped or waterborne to be shipped to be carried coastwise on Sundays or holidays, or unless in the presence or with the authority of the proper officer of the Customs, or unless at such time and places as shall be appointed or approved by him for that purpose, the same shall be forfeited, and the master of the ship on board whereof any such goods shall be shipped, or wherefrom such goods shall be unshipped, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds sterling, and every person who shall land or ship or place on board any lighter or boat to be shipped, or assist, or be otherwise concerned in landing, shipping, or in placing on board any lighter or boat to be shipped any of such goods on such Sundays or holidays, or otherwise than in the presence or with the authority of the proper officer, or otherwise than at at such times and places as shall be appointed or approved by him for that purpose, shall in like manner forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds sterling.

V. The master of every coasting ship shall keep, or cause to be kept, a cargo-book stating the names of the ship, the master and the port to which she belongs, and the port to which she is bound on each voyage; and shall at every port of lading enter in such book the name of such port, and an account of all goods there taken on board such ship, stating the descriptions of the packages and the quantities and descriptions of goods therein, and the quantities and descriptions of any goods stowed loose, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees so far as particulars are known to him, and shall at every port of discharge of such goods note the respective days on which the same, or any of them, are delivered out of such ship, and the respective times of departure from every port of lading and of arrival at every port of discharge; and such master shall on demand produce such book for the inspection of any officer of Customs, who shall be at liberty to make any note or remark therein; and if upon examination any package entered in the cargo-book as containing foreign goods shall be found not to contain such goods, such package, with its contents, shall be forfeited, or if any package shall be found to contain foreign goods not entered in such book, such goods shall be forfeited; and if such master shall fail to correctly keep such cargo-book, or to produce the same, or if at any time there be found on board such ship any goods not entered in such book as laden, or any goods noted as delivered, or if any goods entered as laden, or any goods not noted as delivered be not on board, the master of such ship shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds sterling, and any wilful falsification or erasure made in such book, or in any note duly made therein, with intent to conceal or mislead any person or persons entitled to inspect the same, shall be deemed a contravention of and to fall under the meaning of the seventy-fourth section of Ordinance No. 6 of 1853.

VI. Before any coasting ship shall depart from the port of lading, an account, with a duplicate thereof, according to the schedule hereunto annexed, and signed by the master, shall be delivered to the Collector or other proper officer of Customs at such port, and such officer shall retain the duplicate, and return the original account, dated and signed by him, and such account shall be the clearance of the ship for the voyage, and the transire or pass for the goods expressed therein; and if any such account be false, the master shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds sterling: Provided always that the Collector or other principal officer of Customs at such port of lading, may, whenever it shall appear to him expedient, permit general or special transires to be given under such regulations as such Collector or principal officer may direct, for the lading and clearance, and for the entry and unlading of any coasting ship to proceed to any place in the Colony therein mentioned, and there to discharge the whole or any part of the cargo of such coaster, and there to reload a cargo for shipment back to the port whence such coasting vessel obtained such transire, or such other port in this Colony as shall be therein mentioned, and the same may be revoked by notice in writing under the hand of such Collector or other principal officer as aforesaid delivered to the master or owner of any ship, or any of the crew on board.

VII. Within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any coasting ship at the port of discharge, and before any goods be unladen, the transire, with the name of the place or wharf where the lading is to be discharged noted thereon, shall be delivered to the Collector or other proper officer at such port of discharge, who shall note thereon the date of delivery, and if any goods be unladen contrary hereto, the master shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds sterling, and if any goods shall be laden on board any ship in any port or place in this Colony and carried coastwise, or having been brought coastwise, shall be unladen in any such port or place contrary to these or any other lawful regulations relating to the coasting trade of the Colony, such goods shall be forfeited.

VIII. Any officer of the Customs may go on board any coasting ship in any port or place in this Colony, or at any period of her voyage, search such ship and examine all goods on board and all goods then lading and unlading, and demand all documents which ought to be on board such ship, and the Collector or other proper officer may require that all or any such documents shall be brought to him for inspection, and the master of any ship refusing to produce such documents or to bring the same to the Collector or other proper officer when required, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds sterling.

IX. Wherever in this Act the words "proper officer" shall have been used, the words shall be interpreted to mean any officer who under the provisions of the fifth section of the Ordinance No. 6 of 1853 may be authorized as therein mentioned either before or after the performance of any Act to perform the same.

X. All the powers and authorities vested in the Governor by the seventy-second section of the Ordinance No. 6, 1853, with respect to seizures, penalties, and forfeitures incurred under the said Ordinance shall and may by him be exercised in respect of all seizures, penalties, and forfeitures that may be incurred under this Act.

XI. This Act shall take effect when and so soon as the Governor shall by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette declare that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 353, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
22nd November, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication for general information of the Act 32 Vict., Cap. 11, for amending the law relating to the Coasting Trade and Merchant Shipping in British Possessions.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

CHAP. 11.

An Act for amending the Law relating to the Coasting Trade and Merchant Shipping in British Possessions.

[13th May, 1869.]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869."

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The term "British possession" means any territory or place situate within Her Majesty's dominions, and not forming part of the United Kingdom, or of the Channel Islands, or Isle of Man; and all territories and places under one legislature as hereinafter defined are deemed to be one British possession for the purposes of this Act:

The term "Legislature" includes any person or persons who excercise legislative authority in the British possession, and where there are local legislatures as well as a central legislature means the central legislature only.

3. This Act shall be proclaimed in every British possession by the Governor thereof as soon as may be after he receives notice of this Act, and shall come into operation in that British possession on the day of such proclamation, which day is hereinafter referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Coasting Trade.

4. After the commencement of this Act the legislature of a British possession, by any Act or Ordinance, from time to time, may regulate the coasting trade of that British possession, subject in every case to the following conditions:

(1.) The Act or Ordinance shall contain a suspending clause, providing that such Act or Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon has been publicly signified in the British possession in which it has been passed.

(2.) The Act or Ordinance shall treat all British ships (including the ships of any British possession) in exactly the same manner as ships of the British possession in which it is made.

(3.) Where by treaty made before the passing of this Act Her Majesty has agreed to grant to any ships of any foreign state any rights or privileges in respect of the coasting trade of any British possession, such rights and privileges shall be enjoyed by such ships for so long as Her Majesty has already agreed or may hereafter agree to grant the same, anything in the Act or Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding.

5. The following sections of the The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853, are hereby repealed, namely,

Section three hundred and twenty-eight as from the commencement of this Act.

Section one hundred and sixty-three as from the date in the case of each British possession at which either an Act or Ordinance with respect to the coasting trade made within two years after the commencement of this Act in such British possession comes into operation, or if there is no such Act or Ordinance at which the said two years expire.

Merchant Shipping.

6. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to declare, with respect to the British possession mentioned in the order, the description of persons who are to be registrars of British ships in that possession, and to revoke any order so made.

After the date specified in the order, or, if no date is specified, after the date of the proclamation of the order in the British possession, the order shall have effect as if it were contained in section thirty of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

7. In the construction of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and of the Acts amending the same, Canada shall be deemed to be one British possession.

8. Where the legislature of any British possession provides for the examination of, and grant of certificates of competency to persons intending to act as masters, mates, or engineers on board British ships, and the Board of Trade reports to Her Majesty that they are satisfied that the examinations are so conducted as to be equally efficient as the examinations for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, and that the certificates are granted on such principles as to show the like qualifications and competency as those granted under the said Acts, and are liable to be forfeited for the like reasons and in the like manner, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council,

1. To declare that the said certificates shall be of the same force as if they had been granted under the said Acts:
2. To declare that all or any of the provisions of the said Acts which relate to the certificates of competency granted under those Acts shall apply to the certificates referred to in the said order:
3. To impose such conditions and to make such regulations with respect to the said certificates and to the use, issue, delivery, cancellation, and suspension thereof, as to Her Majesty may seem fit, and to impose penalties not exceeding fifty pounds for the breach of such conditions and regulations.

Upon the publication in the London Gazette of any such Order in Council as last aforesaid, the provisions therein contained shall, from a date to be mentioned for the purpose in such order, take effect as if they had been contained in this Act.

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to revoke any order made under this section.

HET heeft Zijne Excellentie den Gouverneur behaagd den Heer HENRY BOSCAWEN WRIGHT aan te stellen tot Vrederegter voor het District Colesberg.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

1. Men moet in gedachte houden, dat de Kiesgeregtigden, wanneer zij stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering, alleen mogen stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van ingevulde of geteekende lijsten, even als voor Leden van den Raad.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met flaauw gelinieerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en dartegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekenen voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft, heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. En behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor éénen kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of ongelijk verdeelen over zoovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iederen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

6. Het wordt er voor gehouden, dat in elk geval, waarin een kiezer komt stemmen aan eene Stemplaats buiten zijne eigene wijk, en misschien in vele andere gevallen evenzoo, dat de Beambte van Stemopneming wel zal handelen met de volgende vraag te doen, waartoe in hare bewoordingen de Wet magtiging verleent: "Hebt gij reeds gestemd, hetzij hier of elders, in deze kiesafdeeling, voor eenigerlei Lid van de Wetgevende Vergadering?" Men moet voor oogen houden, dat ieder die opzettelijk een valsch antwoord op die vraag geeft strafbaar is met gevangenzetting met of zonder dwangarbeid voor een tijdvak van twee jaren.

7. Geen Beambte van Stemopneming behoort, onder welke omstandigheden ook, eene stem aan te nemen voor iemand, die niet is voorgesteld en geseknndeerd als kandidaat.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen zorgvuldig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand, wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten slotte toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wezen. De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen rigten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eerst overtuigd zijn, dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming,—en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van dienzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt, dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde namen voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagtsnaam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identitait van den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of dezelfde klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam, maar het is eene gansch andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thompson zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomson, want dit is louter eene vergissing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Lambser en Lobser, de Villiers en Viljee, Haupt en Hoof, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbasteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stemboek, dien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden verklaard.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14. Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow ful time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by my Proclamation bearing even date with these presents, I did dissolve the House of Assembly of this Colony: And whereas it is now expedient to proceed to a new election of Members of the said House of Assembly:

Now, therefore, I do hereby, under and by virtue of the powers and authorities vested in me by law, proclaim, declare, and make known the several matters following, that is to say:

1st. That the Returning Officers for the respective Electoral Divisions of the Colony (other than Cape Town, Cape Division, and Graham's Town) shall be the Civil Commissioners of the said Divisions, respectively, or the Officers for the time being acting as such.

2nd. That the Returning Officer for the Electoral Division of Cape Town and for the Electoral Division of the Cape shall be the Resident Magistrate of Cape Town, or the Officer for the time being acting as such; and that the Returning Officer for the Electoral Division of Graham's Town shall be the Civil Commissioner of the Division of Albany, or the Officer for the time being acting as such.

3rd. That the Court for the nomination of Persons proposed as Members of Assembly for the Electoral Division of Cape Town and for the Electoral Division of the Cape shall be holden in such place in the City of Cape Town as shall hereafter by Government Notice be announced.

4th. That the Returning Officers for the several Electoral Divisions of the Colony (other than the Electoral Divisions of Cape Town and Graham's Town) shall proceed to the election of Members of Assembly upon Monday, the 6th day of December next, by holding, at 10 o'clock a.m. upon that day, a Court for the nomination of Persons proposed as Members, as is in and by the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directed, and by proceeding thereat and thereafter as by law enjoined, in order to the election of the said Members.

5th. That the Returning Officers of the Electoral Divisions of Cape Town and Graham's Town shall proceed to the election of Members for such Electoral Divisions, respectively, upon Tuesday, the 7th day of December next, by holding, at 10 o'clock a.m. upon that day, a Court for the nomination of Persons proposed as Members, as is hereinbefore and in the said 48th Section mentioned, and by proceeding thereat and thereafter as by law directed in order to the election of the said Members.

6th. That as often as in any Electoral Division a Poll shall be demanded and shall take place, the Returning Officer shall appoint for the taking of the Poll for the election of the Members of the House of Assembly the same Polling Places in such Division as were fixed by my Proclamation No. 7, of the 11th January, 1869, for taking the Poll for the election of Members of the Legislative Council in that Division.

7th. That the Polling Officers for taking the Poll in the several Electoral Divisions shall, unless otherwise provided by law, as much as may be, be the same as those appointed by my Proclamation last hereinbefore mentioned to take the Poll in such Divisions, respectively, for Members of the Legislative Council; and the Returning Officer for every Electoral Division in which a Poll shall be taken shall place in the possession of every Polling Officer, other than such Returning Officer himself, a Certificate, under the hand of such Returning Officer, certifying that the Officer named therein has been appointed to take the Poll for Members of Assembly at the Polling Place or Polling Places mentioned in such Certificate.

And I do hereby further proclaim and make known, under and by virtue of the 9th Section of "The Corrupt Practices at Elections Prevention Act, 1859," that all Persons who shall be guilty of bribery, treating, or undue influence at or in reference to the said Election, will, upon conviction, be liable to the penalties in that behalf by the said Act provided.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the Rate.

This being a MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETY, the profits are not, as in Proprietary Companies, divided between the Partners and the Assured,—the whole belong to the Policy-holders.

The Profits are divided amongst the holders of Policies at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, and each holder may determine that his share shall be added to the sum assured by him,—or converted into Present Payment—or applied in Reduction of the future Annual Premiums payable by him.

The last Division was declared at the Annual Meeting held on the 6th July, 1868. The Profits then divided were at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum, or 7½ per cent. for the three years. Thus a Policy of £500, taken out before 1st November, 1865, has £37 10s., three years' Profits added to it; a Policy of the same amount, taken out before 1st November, 1867, has £12 10s., one year's Profits added; while the total accumulated Profits on a Policy of £500, taken out in 1845, the first year of the Society's existence, now amount to the large sum of £401 0s. 4d.

The next Division of Profits will take place in July, 1871.

Persons proposing for assurance are required to produce Certificates of Baptism, or such other proofs of age as the Directors may deem to be satisfactory.

Candidates for assurance are not charged with fees payable to the Medical Officers of the Society.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and all information respecting the Society may be obtained at the Office in Cape Town, or at any of the Agencies throughout the Colony.

By order of the Board,

No. 4,179.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE
Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14. Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow ful time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

WET

Om in sommige gevallen de meening te bepalen van de benaming "Marskramers of Rondreizende Kooplieden" in den zin der "Zegelwet van 1864."

NAARDEMAAL het bij niet-gepatenteerde personen gebruikelijk is, verschillende artikelen van weinig waarde, geschikt voor huishoudelijk gebruik te koop rond te dragen, waardoor het gerief des publieks bevorderd wordt en vele arme lieden het levensonderhoud verdienen: En naardemaal het dienstig is, dat degenen, die zulke artikelen te koop ronddragen, niet zullen geacht worden marskramers of rondreizende kooplieden te zijn in den zin der "Zegelwet van 1864:" Zoo wordt door den Gouverneur van de Kaap de Goede Hoop, met advies en toestemming van den Wetgevenden Raad en de Wetgevende Vergadering derzelve, vastgesteld als volgt:

I. Niemand die een of meer der volgende artikelen te koop ronddraagt, namelijk: visch, vruchten, groenten, melk, eijeren, boter, pluimvee, wild gevogelte, geen eigenlijke wild zijnde, koek, suikergoed, honig, bloemen, bezems, houtskool, kooigoed, kalk, matten, mandjes, stroohoeden van kolonial maaksel, of brandhout, zal, met zulks te doen, geacht worden een marskramer of rondreizend koopman te zijn, ook zal zoo iemand niet verpligt zijn om daarvoor eene licentie of patent aan te vragen en in bezit te hebben, als bij de "Zegelwet van 1864" vereischt wordt, door marskramers of rondreizende kooplieden te worden aangevraagd en bezeten.

Gegeven ten Gouvernementshuize, heden den 18den dag van October 1869.

7. Dat de Beambten van Stemopneming in de verschillende Kiesafdeelingen, tenzij anders door de Wet bepaald, voor zoo ver als zulks zijn moge, dezelfde zullen zijn, als die, welke bij mijne laatst hierin genoemde Proklamatie zijn aangesteld voor het opnemen van Stemmen in die Afdeelingen respektivelijk voor Leden van den Wetgevenden Raad; en de Rapport doende Ambtenaar voor iedere Kiesafdeeling, waarin eene Stemopneming geschieden, zal aan iederen Beambte van Stemopneming buiten dien Rapport doenden Ambtenaar zelven, een Certifikaat ter hand stellen, door dien Rapport doenden Ambtenaar onderteekend, en certificerende, dat de daarin genoemde Beambte is aangesteld voor het opnemen der Stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering op de Stemplaats of Stemplaatsen, in dat Certifikaat aangeduid.

En ik proklameer en maak hierbij verder bekend, naar en uit krachte van Artikel 9 der Wet van 1859, "ter Voorkoming van Ongeoorloofde Praktijk bij de Verkiezingen," dat al degenen, die schuldig zullen zijn aan omkooperij, trakteren of ongeoorloofden invloed bij of in betrekking tot gezegde Verkiezing, schuldig bevonden zijnde, strafbaar zullen zijn met de penaliteiten, ten dien behoeve bij de gezegde Wet bepaald.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,

Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met flaauw gelinieerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en dartegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekeren voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. In behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor éénen kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of orgelijk verdeelen over zoovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iederen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen zorgvuldig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten slotte toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wezen, De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen rigten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eerst overtuigd zijn, dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming,—en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van denzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt, dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde namen voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagts naam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identiteit van den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of deze die klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam, maar het is eene gansch andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thompson zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomson, want dit is louter eene vergissing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Lobster en Lobser, de Villiers en Viljee, Haupt en Hoof, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbasteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stembook, dien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden verklaard.

KENNISGEVING.

HIERBIJ geschiedt kennisgeving ingevolge Artikel 39 van Wet No. 9, 1858, dat de Afdeelingsraad van Victoria Oost op de geschatte waarde van alle daaraan onderworpen Vaste Goederen in die Afdeeling eene Belasting heeft omgeslagen en gelegd van Een Halve Penny per Pond Sterling, en dat die Belasting verschijnt en ten Kantore van den Ondergeteekende betaalbaar is op den 22sten December aanst.

No. 4,180.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14. Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow ful time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

The Premiums are payable yearly in advance; or at the option of the Assured, half-yearly, with a slight increase of the Rate.

This being a MUTUAL ASSURANCE SOCIETY, the profits are not, as in Proprietary Companies, divided between the Partners and the Assured,—the whole belong to the Policyholders.

The Profits are divided amongst the holders of Policies at the termination of every period of THREE YEARS, and each holder may determine that his share shall be added to the sum assured by him,—or converted into Present Payment—or applied in Reduction of the future Annual Premiums payable by him.

The last Division was declared at the Annual Meeting held on the 6th July, 1868. The Profits then divided were at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum, or 7½ per cent. for the three years. Thus a Policy of £500, taken out before 1st November, 1865, has £37 10s., three years' Profits added to it; a Policy of the same amount, taken out before 1st November, 1867, has £12 10s., one year's Profits added; while the total accumulated Profits on a Policy of £500, taken out in 1845, the first year of the Society's existence, now amount to the large sum of £401 0s. 4d.

The next Division of Profits will take place in July, 1871.

Persons proposing for assurance are required to produce Certificates of Baptism, or such other proofs of age as the Directors may deem to be satisfactory.

Candidates for assurance are not charged with fees payable to the Medical Officers of the Society.

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and all information respecting the Society may be obtained at the Office in Cape Town, or at any of the Agencies throughout the Colony.

By order of the Board,
